

Webinar Schedule May 2023

Kelly Education and Teachers On Call (TOC) continue to expand our training & professional development offerings to our talent and clients. This series of free virtual instructor-led webinar events covers various education topics.

Whether you are new to working in education or have served for a while and looking to refresh your knowledge, we have something for you!

Please view the dates & topics below and click the register link for any session to secure your virtual seat!

*All listed opportunities are unpaid, optional professional development designed to help improve your skills working in the classroom.****

We'd like your feedback! We've had an incredible year filled with professional development opportunities and are looking forward to what's next. We constantly endeavor to create meaningful and relevant courses that you can apply directly to your positions. You can help us as we plan future content by filling out this brief survey. CLICK HERE FOR THE SURVEY! Please only fill it out once.

New Substitute Webinar (90 mins) - Covers what you can expect as a substitute, what you need to bring with you, basic responsibilities, and more! You will walk away from this session with the information you need to work as a substitute teacher or paraprofessional. Available Sessions:

Thursday, May 4 from 6:00pm-7:30pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:30pm \(ET\)

Wednesday, May 10 from 6:00pm-7:30pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:30pm \(ET\)

Classroom Management Workshop (2 ½ hours) – Whether you are a teacher or paraprofessional, each student has varied reasons that contribute to inappropriate classroom behavior and can provide a challenge to the learning environment. In this workshop, we will explain some of the various causes and discuss approaches to manage and proactive strategies to help prevent further inappropriate behavior. Strategies discussed can be applied across any classroom including special education. Available Session:

Monday, May 8 from 5:30pm-8:00pm \(CT\)/6:30pm-9:00pm \(ET\) - pre-recorded

Verbal Interventions Webinar (2 hours) – We cover verbal intervention skills as laid out by the Crisis Prevention Institutes. This training follows content provided in the Nonviolent Crisis Intervention training, in that we will cover levels of crisis, signs of escalating behavior, verbal intervention skills and strategies. Available sessions: Monday, May 22 from 5:30pm-7:30pm \(CT\)/6:30pm-8:30pm \(ET\) - pre-recorded

Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) Overview (1 hour) –Defines what is PBIS and how can guest staff incorporate the ideals, values, and best practices in their day-to-day role in ways that fit into any school or district procedure. Available sessions:

Wednesday, May 3 from 6:00pm-7:00pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:00pm \(ET\)

Wednesday, May 17 from 6:00pm-7:00pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:00pm \(ET\)

Communication Essentials (1 hour)– While working in various assignments, there are many ways we can positively or negatively affect the experience. In this webinar, we will cover how we communicate plays a role by discussing the components of communication, some of the common pitfalls and how to avoid them, and some general suggestions in maintaining professional communication with both students and school staff. Available sessions:

Thursday, May 18 from 6:00pm-7:00pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:00pm \(ET\)

Special Education Workshop (3 hours) – "I don't know what to do in Special Education". "I'm not sure I'm qualified to work there." "What do I do if something happens in the class?" Special Education positions may seem intimidating, especially if you do not have any experience in those programs. We answer a lot of the most frequent questions and concerns when people consider working in a special education position. You will gain valuable knowledge about the types of special education classrooms, special education students and classroom management techniques. Available sessions:

Thursday, May 11 from 5:30pm-8:30pm \(CT\)/6:30pm-9:30pm \(ET\) - pre-recorded

Special Education: Focus on ASD (Autism Spectrum Disorder) (1 hour) – This session will answer several questions substitutes have about Autism Spectrum Disorder, like what is ASD and why is it a "spectrum", behaviors they may observe and how to address them if they are inappropriate, and many more. *This session is pre-recorded* Available sessions:

Wednesday, May 24 from 5:00-6:00pm \(CT\)/6:00pm-7:00pm \(ET\)

Special Education: Focus on EBD (Emotional Behavioral Disability) (1 hour) - This session will answer a lot of common substitute questions pertaining to this need, like what is EBD, strategies to address behavior, how to appropriately ask for help and many more. *This session is pre-recorded* Available sessions:

Wednesday, May 24 from 6:30pm-7:30pm \(CT\)/7:30pm-8:30pm \(ET\)

Special Education: Focus on LD/ADHD (1 hour) – This session will discuss Learning Disabilities and Attention-Deficit/Hyperactivity Disorder. In the session we will address how these can impact student learning and what we can do as guest staff to better support these students. *This session is pre-recorded* Available sessions: Thursday, May 25 from 6:00pm-7:00pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:00pm \(ET\)

The Impact of Mental Illness as Guest Staff (1 hour) – In this session, we will cover the most prevalent mental health issues that students face, by challenging some myths, discussing basic symptoms, and identifying ways that you as a substitute teacher or paraprofessional can help. Available sessions: Monday, May 15 from 6:00pm-7:00pm \(CT\)/7:00pm-8:00pm \(ET\)